

CHRISTMAS GIVING BENEFITS PANTRY CLIENTS

Nancy Castellucci and Cassidy Shoulders of the Women’s Division of the Chamber of Commerce donated a $1,000 check to be used to buy food for all of our clients. This gift was part of the $8,000 the Women’s Division disbursed this month to local agencies to assist women and children. Seen here accepting the check are David Floyd, pantry manager, and Jody Koenigseker, volunteer coordinator.

According to Nancy, the Civic Affairs chair, Alliance was the first Women’s Division of Chamber of Commerce in Ohio.

COASTAL PET CONTINUES GIVING

As they do every year, the employees at Coastal Pet Products team made a generous donation of food to the pantry. Glenn Rupp and John Whitehair, representing the pantry, picked up three large skids of a wide variety of canned and boxed food for our clients. The food was loaded on to our truck by Alex Gouldmann.

The pantry and our clients are grateful for Coastal Pet and the many local businesses who support us in so many ways. Our clients thank you!

MAC TRAILER MANUFACTURING, Inc. and their employees are committed to the Alliance community and have always appreciated the work that we do at the Pantry. They expressed that in a big way by delivering 5,983 pounds of food that had been collected at work following a competition among employees on the shop floor.

RIGHT: MAC employees delivering the food, with the help of pantry volunteers, were, from left, Eric Kidd, Mike Patton, Bill Mack, Al Liber, Brooke Bandy, Phil Linger, Paula Faulkner. MAC is very happy to help the food pantry and look forward to continuing a relationship, and we at the pantry and our clients greatly appreciate it.

Kathy Kramer, president of the pantry board, met at the Chamber of Commerce with the Wednesday Morning Tip Club. She gave them the history, operation and statistics for the work the pantry does to help feed the community, and thanks to the generous members, she left with a donation 58 jars of peanut butter and $115.

We thank the support we get throughout the community to help serve our clients.

Happy New Year!

BSU

We were privileged to have members of Mount Union's Black Student Union come to the pantry to give it a much-needed deep cleaning. Ten volunteers worked hard to clean the waiting room, the shopping area, the warehouse, our walk-in refrigerator, and even raked leaves around the loading dock. They are another example of the great support the pantry receives from the Mount Union student body.
