

MORE MOUNT HELP

As they've been doing for the past month, students in Beth Simbro's Mount Union classes have been helping out at the pantry and they were working hard again the Monday morning of March 24. Six students in her poverty class spent time bagging donated food items, sorting food to be handed out later in the early evening, and helping make final preparations for our 4 p.m. opening.

We thank student Lizzy Higginbotham for the pictures and Debbie Skubiak, our dedicated pantry manager, for directing and keeping the students busy.

NEW DELI SUPPORTER

Rudy Roggencamp, the newest member of our board of trustees, has been a loyal volunteer to the pantry the last few years as part of the trucking team that picks up food every Monday and Wednesday morning from the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank.

But early this year, Rudy added to his accomplishments by stopping by the Country Cupboard & Deli at Rt. 183 south of town and Cenfield St. to see if they might want to make any donations to our pantry. Sarah Miller, who runs the deli that opened Jan. 28, immediately said "Yes," and since then Rudy has been picking up deli meat almost weekly to pass along to our clients.

Sarah, who had worked at Motts Greenhouse for two years and prior to that at Manfull Orchards Farm Market in Augusta for 10 years, had dreamed of having a deli in that location and when it became available quickly jumped at the opportunity. Sarah and her husband Tony, who currently works at Hartville

Hardware, bought the deli and she operates it with her four children who are all home schooled.

McGrath. They are involved with the Hebron Conservative Mennonite Church, and are determined to serve the community in many ways.

Located at 6050 Union Ave., they are closed Sundays but open all other days at 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., but close Saturdays at 5 p.m.

We thank the Millers for their support.
